more delighted and since than that which heard Mr. Beard last evening. From the first remark to the last he held them captive with his beight sallies of wit and humor, and his marvellous sketches or carleatures, which he drew with lightning rapidity and wonderful ease. Mr. Beard has a delightful style, peculiar to himself, of mixing the beautiful with the humorous, and as a consequence his style; peculiar to himself, of mixing the beautiful with the humorous, and as a concequence his audience were continually either indulging in wild sallies of laughter or rapt in the depths or almiration. He gave a wonderful exhibition of his ambidesterify by drawing two distinct pictures at once. This brought down the house, as did several others of his sketches. In appearance Mr. Beard is not what might a called a strikingly handsome man, but he is the possessor of one of the properties of the sketches. CITY ITEMS. Wilson's Compound of Pure Cop Lives On no Line.—The advantage of this compound ove the muscaling taste of the Oi AND LAME. The advantage of this compound over the plain (ii) is that the natureating teste of the compound over the plain (ii) is that the natureating teste of the Oil is entirely removed, and the whole rendered sintingly palatable. The offensive taste of the Oil has long acute do a promittent objection to its me; but in this form the trouble it satirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of "Wilher's Cod. Liver Oil and Line." But the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient. For sale by A. B. Wilbor, chemist, Boston, and by all druggists.
